Terms & Expectations

- Both members of the relationship will be respectful, show up when they say they will (or reschedule in a timely manner if required), and put their best selves into this initiative.
- Confidentiality can be requested but cannot be enforced. If you are unsure whether to share something that requires an NDA, please refrain during the mentorship process.
- Mentees are not required to do what their mentors advise, and mentors are not held accountable for the success of their advice.
- This is a mentee-driven relationship, so if nothing has been booked, it is up to the mentee to follow up.
- If there are any concerns please contact Heather or another member of the BPW board right away.

Next Steps

You will be contacted for details upon receiving your information. We can't guarantee when you'll get your first mentor/mentee, but we'll keep you in the loop!
